FREE DRINKS! FREE PIZZA! FREE SCIENCE!

Hello everyone,

After the new year, social seminar is back!! Tomorrow (Tuesday 4th) in CPB - remember that it is the first Tuesday of each month

Usual drill for the seminars:

- 16:30 – Drinks and pizza
- 16:40 – Elise - Using acoustics to assess ecosystem services in a coffee agricultural matrix in Minas Gerais, Brazil
- 17:00 – Refuel
- 17:10 – Lucas - Predicting global biodiversity with general ecosystems models and neutral theory

We are looking for speaker over the coming months

Please use the google doc link to put your name on the month you want to talk (up to 2 speakers per month). Titles for talks should be added a week before your talk.

The social seminar series is a great way to get experience talking in a relaxed environment to introduce your work, and to hear about the research going on at Silwood.

Pete & Rich

PHDs/POSTDOCS/FELLOWS PLEASE SIGN UP for future talks.
