Dear All,

Apologies for the late notice, but Esther Kioko from the National Museum of Kenya is visiting tomorrow (Wednesday) and will be giving a talk about her work on insect pollinators for African farming. 13:00 in Fisher.

Please do come along. It is a great opportunity to listen to work going on Africa, and there may be GCRF funding opportunities. Please note, she will also be receiving a prize at the BES meeting this year for her work.

Best,

Rich
